DESCRIPTION OF AWARD – STRONGER TOGETHER

The Women in Law Leadership - Stronger Together Award will honour the outstanding contributions of women lawyers across Canada.

THIS AWARD WILL RECOGNIZE AND CELEBRATE A WOMAN' LAWYER WHO IS:

1. Demonstrating extraordinary leadership in a cause which has positively impacted their communities.
2. Developing and promoting initiatives that contribute to the well-being and betterment of their communities.
3. Blazing a trail in the areas of legal education and/or scholarship; equity, diversity and inclusion; service through Pro Bono initiatives or service to other community organizations.

Each nominee must be a member in good standing of a Canadian Law Society, can be practicing or non-practicing; working in private practice, in-house, government, education, or in the not-for-profit sector; and can be of any year of call.

This program is for all women, including cis and trans women, and non-binary people who are comfortable in a space that centres on the experiences of women.*

NOMINATION PROCESS

The WILL Stronger Together Award will be presented to a woman* lawyer in Canada in recognition of their outstanding dedication, creativity, initiative, achievement, and contribution to their community.

ELIGIBILITY

- All women lawyers in a Province or Territory of Canada are eligible for nomination.
- Each nominee must be a member in good standing of a Canadian Law Society, can be practicing or non-practicing; working in private practice, in-house, government, education, or in the not-for-profit sector; and can be of any year of call.

NOMINATION PROCESS

All nomination packages received should include:

- A statement from the nominator detailing why the candidate is worthy of the award.
- A curriculum vitae of the nominee outlining the nominee's background, career and any activities that qualify her for nomination in one of the six categories.
- Two letters of support for the nominee from someone other than the nominator (three letters of support for the candidate if she is self-nominating).

SELECTION PROCESS

Nominees will be evaluated on criteria including the following:

1. Demonstrating extraordinary leadership in a cause which has positively impacted their communities.
2. Developing and promoting initiatives that contribute to the well-being and betterment of their communities.
3. Blazing a trail in the areas of legal education and/or scholarship; equity, diversity and inclusion; service through Pro Bono initiatives or service to other community organizations.

The selection committee includes representatives from Women in Law Leadership Board, The Counsel Network, the judiciary, representatives from the Faculty of Law of a Canadian University, and representatives from the Canadian Bar Association.

This program is for all women, including cis and trans women, and non-binary people who are comfortable in a space that centres on the experiences of women.*
